Under the Government order NO. It has been brought to the notice of the Government that certain Naga candidates such as Tangkhul, Mao and Zeliangraong etc, whose homes are from places outside the present jurisdiction of the State of Nagaland. A doubt has therefore arisen as to whether these categories of candidates can be treated as indigenous inhabitants of Nagaland and come under the purview of above mentioned 80% reservation.

This provision does not apply to the Nagas, such as Tangkhul, Mao, Zeliangrong living outside the present jurisdiction of the State.
